

Policy 2010.4

Relationship of Firelight Meadows Unit Owners Association to Owner Members

It is the policy of the FMUOA to deal directly with owners of record on all issues. Owners are free to contract with property managers to oversee their individual units, but, in all matters, the Association will communicate with and operate through the owner of record.

It will be totally up to the owner to communicate with the property management company of their choice.